

SCOTTS VALLEY ROTARY

CALCUTTA LITERACY PROJECT

Working with Madhumita Bishnu of the New Ballygunge Club of Calcutta, Scotts Valley Rotary Club partnered with other Rotary Clubs to sponsor the work of the Country Women's Association of India to teach literacy to the women in 10 villages where 80 percent of the women are illiterate.

The New Ballygunge Rotary Club of Calcutta was chartered in 1996 and has 33 members. It is a member of District 3290, the oldest Rotary District in the mainland of Asia.